The nature of investment in Financial Instruments is such that not all Financial Instruments are suitable for everyone unless they:

- • are knowledgeable in investment matters
- • are able to bear the economic risk of the investment
- • understand the risk involved
- • believe that the investment is suitable for their particular investment objective and financial needs

Should any non-professional investor invest in Financial Instruments; it is advisable that only a part of the sums that the investor intends to invest for long-term should be so invested.

It is also advisable that all investors should seek advice from a professional investment advisor before making any investment in Financial Instruments.
